This is a great opportunity to buy a business and house together. The restaurant is currently closed now, but was a fully functional bar come restaurant 176m². It has a large front terrace, plenty of parking space, 2 dining areas, one which has the bar counter, a kitchen and public toilets. The house 197m² sits just behind the restaurant and entertains a living room, 3 double bedrooms, and a family bathroom. The kitchen is now an empty tiled room and they have converted the garage space into a large kitchen and dining area with a fireplace and another family bathroom. There is a staircase which takes you to the roof terrace and a large attic used for storage. The garden has been fenced off and being used to grow home produce, and ...
